Mark 7:21-23

BEHAVIOR:

Proverbs 23:7a (Thoughts)

For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he:

- When we think about injustices done to us, we become bitter.
- When we think about bad things that might happen to us, we become fearful.
- When we think about things in the past we cannot change, we become discouraged.
- When we think about things we do not like, we become angry.
- When we think about people who are unkind to us, we become hateful.
- When we think about our perceived good qualities and righteousness in comparison to others, we become prideful.
- When we always think about ourselves, we become self-centered and selfish.
- When we think things are hopeless we become depressed.

- When we think about God's promises we have hope.
- When we think about God's justice and trust it, we are comforted.
- When we think the best about others, we are kind.
- When we think about God's love toward us, we become merciful.
- When we think about things God is doing in our lives, we become humble.
- When we think about ways we can serve others and love others, we become happy and fulfilled.
- When we think about things that are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, worthwhile, morally excellent and praise worthy, we have peace of mind beyond anything the world can experience!

Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness (unbridled lust), Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance (state of dissension or enmity), emulations (rivalry, desire of superiority, jealousy), wrath, strife, seditions (rebellion), heresies, Envying, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.
